S.B. CIVIL WRIT PETITION NO.9490/07
Ram Charan Vs. The Distt. Judge, Alwar & Anr.

Date of order : 16/11/2007.

HON'BLE MR.JUSTICE MOHAMMAD RAFIQ

Shri Kailash Chand Tailor for the petitioner.

The petitioner has challenged the order dated 12.2.2007 passed by the District Judge, Alwar, whereby his revision petition was rejected while the revision petition filed by the contesting respondent no.2 was allowed.

The aforesaid two revision petitions were filed by the parties against the order dated 14.9.2004 passed by the Prescribed Authority under Rajasthan Agriculture Debt Relief Act. The first Court did not allow the claim of the petitioner whereas allowed one claim in respect of Rs.20,490/- on issue number 2. The learned District Judge in revision petition however while rejecting the revision petition filed by the petitioner allowed the revision petition of the respondent no.2 to the extent of that claim on the ground that no presumption as to the correctness of Exhibit-5 and 6 would be taken since the finding of issue no.2 was based because of those documents as correct recored by the Prescribed Authority, this claim also could not be allowed.

Having heard the learned counsel for the petitioner and perused the material on record, I do not find that the learned court below has committed any such material error or irregularity which may be categorized as error apparent on the face of the record so as to warrant interference of this Court.

The writ petition has no merit and is therefore dismissed.
